

Leigh Anne C. Harvey, MD

Vice President

Dr. Harvey is a board-certified psychiatrist who completed specialty training at Emory School of Medicine. Dr. Harvey is currently on staff at McIntosh Trail Community Service Board south of Atlanta, Georgia, where she provides medication management for adults with mental health and addiction issues. Dr. Harvey has been a member of NAMI since her psychiatry residency training and recently joined the ASH Board of Directors. Her brother struggles with chronic severe mental illness and is a resident of Iris Place™ in Dallas, Texas. Outside of work Dr. Harvey enjoys gardening, spending time with nature, and playing pickle ball.

TRAINING & CREDENTIALS

Richardson High School, Richardson, Texas – class valedictorian

Williams College, Williamstown, Massachusetts – Bachelor of Arts with double major in biology & chemistry, summa cum laude, member of Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society

University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio, San Antonio, Texas – medical degree, class salutatorian, junior year member of Alpha Omega Alpha Medical Honor Society

Presbyterian Hospital, Dallas, Texas – internship in internal medicine

Baylor University Medical Center, Dallas, Texas – residency in Anatomic & Clinical Pathology

American Board of Pathology – diplomate, AP/CP & Hematopathology

Emory University School of Medicine, Atlanta, Georgia – residency in psychiatry

American Board of Psychiatry & Neurology – diplomate, Psychiatry